

I joined The Glendale Gateway Trust in November 2025.

Born in Alnwick, I have lived in the north of Northumberland all of my life.

From leaving school I have worked in the NHS, private sector and for several national charities.

I have always enjoyed working with people.

I love Northumberland and I am keen to work to support the local community through rural advocacy and to promote rural inclusion.